

DR. J. R. MOTT SPEAKS THIS AFTERNOON

Will Address Student Body in Convocation Hall

NOTED STATESMAN

Has a Great Message for Students of McGill

Dr. John R. Mott, will lecture in the R.V.C. Convocation Hall at 5 p.m. today, under the auspices of the Canadian Club of McGill. The Canadian Club should be congratulated in having secured Dr. Mott as the speaker of the afternoon, for he is declared to have few equals in the world to-day as an orator. As to position, the late President Roosevelt declared him to be "one of the five greatest statesmen of the world to-day."

As to Dr. Mott's place in the world, the Bishop of Durham said of him, "He is one of the greatest forces of the Age."

Dr. Mott is the Head of the World Student Federation. Much of the success which the Federation has achieved is due to their Head. Also he has served in Ambassadorial capacities for the U.S. Government in China and Russia. In this capacity, he did some wonderful work for his country. It is said that he was once offered the presidency of China. It is also a well-known fact that he refused the presidency of Princeton University. Dr. Mott has been around the world thirty-six times, has talked to and worked with peoples of all kinds and conditions. His great vision and foresight is due in no small measure to his extensive travels.

Dr. Mott holds the Legion of Honor from France, and the D.S.M. from the United States. He has degrees from Cornell, Yale, Edinburgh and Princeton.

Dr. Mott has been described as a man of tremendous breadth of vision, of vast experience, of exalted independent rank, and incredible driving force.

This afternoon he will deliver a great message to the students of McGill University.

CERCLE TO DEBATE WEIGHTY QUESTION

Does the City Girl Make the Best Wife?

The third meeting of the season of the Cercle Francais is taking place this evening at the Union Cafeteria. The guest for the meeting is Dr. Brandt, of the Pointe Aux Trembles Academy.

Those students who have not already had the pleasure of listening to Dr. Brandt before, can be assured of a pleasant and most interesting evening.

There is also included on the bill for to-night a heated debate on a most serious and complicated topic. The subject is, namely, this: "Resolved that the City Girl makes a better wife than the country girl."

Gault and Goldsmith will battle against Martineau and Bourgois. Owing to the gravity of the subject, ample police protection will be afforded to both debaters, and they will not be held responsible for any statements that might be used against them later on.

The usual refreshments for which the Cercle is far-famed, will be served, and a profitable evening can be assured to all who attend. Dr. Villard will pour the tea.

MED. UNDERGRADS HEAR DR. PIRIE

"X-Rays" Form Topic of Address

The subject of "X-Rays" was exhaustively dealt with from all its angles by Dr. Pirie at the regular meeting of the Med. Undergraduate Society held last night in the Medical building.

Previous to the main part of the program a letter was read from E. C. Amaron, urging financial support of all Medical students to the campaign for the local Federated Charities, now in progress. Med. '26 is the only Medical year which has so far reported its subscriptions, but other years are expected to follow within the next few days.

Dr. Pirie, in opening his address, mentioned that X-rays were discovered accidentally, and now thousands are employed in making X-ray apparatus. X-rays are a very high form of vibration of which the "gamma" ray is the fastest. From this he went on to ex-

AWARD RHODES SCHOLARSHIP NEXT WEEK

Nine Applications Received from McGill Men

15 CANDIDATES

G. S. Stairs, K.C., Secretary of Committee

In the next few days a Rhodes Scholar is to be chosen from Quebec. For some time past, data on the different applicants has been collecting, and the Committee of Selection will probably reach a decision early next week. Of the fifteen candidates, nine are from McGill, four from the University of Montreal, with which Loyola and St. Mary's Colleges are affiliated, one from Laval, and one from Bishop's.

Prior to 1919, the system of selecting a Rhodes Scholar in almost all the Provinces of Canada and most of the States of the United States was to place the nominations at the disposal of the principal universities or colleges in rotation. That is, in each province or state, one university only had the right to elect a candidate for a certain year, and the next year this right was passed on to another university in the province. The experience of the sixteen years during which the scholarships had been in operation under this system showed that it was not the best method. In 1919 the Trustees for the Rhodes Scholarships at Oxford University decided to throw the scholarships open to competition in each province and state, and to establish committees of selection, composed as far as possible of former Rhodes Scholars, with a chairman, eminent in educational or other public service.

The Committee of Selection appointed by the Trustees for the Province of Quebec, consists of the following: E. W. Beatty, K.C., LL.D., President of the C.P.R. Company.

J. C. Kemp, B.A., formerly of University College, Oxford.

F. C. J. Barbeau, B.A., former Rhodes Scholar from Laval University, Quebec.

G. M. Smith, B.A., former Rhodes Scholar from Alberta.

G. S. Stairs, K.C., M.A., former Rhodes scholar from Nova Scotia, and secretary of the Committee for 1922.

So far, since the inauguration of the new system of selection by Provincial Committees, three Scholars have been elected from the Province of Quebec. The first of these was A. G. Brossard, B.A., University of Montreal, who was elected in January, 1920, and went to Oxford in the autumn of that year. Owing to the non-appointment of scholars during the latter part of the war, there was a second vacancy that year, and this was filled by the election of Francis Reginald Scott, of Bishop's College, on the 11th of June, 1920, to go to Oxford in January, 1921. The last Scholar elected was John Colborne Farthing, of McGill, son of Bishop Farthing, of Montreal. Farthing was elected on the 8th of November, 1920, and left early last October for Oxford.

Normally the scholarships amount to £350, which is just about enough to annum is being added, bringing the total to £350, which is just about enough to cover a year's expenses at Oxford and on vacation.

In choosing a candidate the Committee lay particular stress on the fact that it makes no difference whether he be rich or poor, or whether his station in life is high or low. The first requirement is that he possess brains and scholastic ability and such things as are laid down in the will of Cecil Rhodes, namely, "force of character, devotion to duty, courage, sympathy and capacity for leadership." Another necessity is that the candidate should possess "physical vigor," whether it be shown by his activities in outdoor sports or his fondness for hunting, camping or canoeing and other healthful exercises along the same lines. The latter requirement is to show the manliness of the individual. Thus the qualities required are those of an all round man, who is neither a book-worm who takes no interest in sports, nor a brilliant athlete who finds no time for scholastic attainment, but the man who enters into every activity he has time for besides making a success of his studies.

plain the development of X-ray tubes until the invention of the Coolidge tube of today. The speaker then demonstrated the different uses of X-rays from determining whether paintings are by the old masters and genuine, to treatment of ring worm, growths, location of foreign bodies, reduction of fractures and many other uses.

The case report was then presented and discussed, after which refreshments were served. President Elder occupied the chair.

"STUNTS" WILL BE PLAYED TOMORROW

R.V.C. to Stage Theatricals at the Hall

Ye Scribe chancing to wander one day within the precincts of the Royal Victoria College, did hear issuing from the Common Room thereof a mighty and amazing clamour as of many people overcome by mirth.

Like all the members of his tribe, being possessed of a curiosity almost insatiable, he made many inquiries as to the import of these strange sounds, but could only discover the unlightening information that for that afternoon was the hall surrendered to the members of the S.C.A. His curiosity whetted thereby, he did venture to proceed nearer the source of the merry sounds, and did discover that the rear door was slightly ajar. Here he took his stand unobserved, and witnessed the very touching performance of "A Spanish Tragedy," starring Miss Roy, the famous tragedienne.

Wiping away from his eyes the tears caused by this, whether from mirth or from grief, one could not say, he eagerly awaited what would happen next, but to his dismay saw that the gathering was on the point of breaking up.

Then did Ye Scribe bewail his mournful lot that the Fates had not led him hither earlier, but soon the joyful news reached his ears that this was only a practice for a performance to be given at a later date, and that anybody fortunate enough to possess 25c might go to Strathcona Hall at 8:15 on the evening of Wednesday, November 29, and there see this same pathetic scene and many mirth-provoking "stunts" besides.

Then did the Scribe wend his homeward way with a light heart and did set aside carefully the sum of 25c to reserve it for 8:15 Wednesday evening at Strathcona Hall.

COUNCIL NOMINATIONS.

Nominations for faculty representatives on the Students' Council selected from the Junior Class of each faculty and signed by 25 students of that faculty, must be handed in at the office of the Secretary at the Union, by 6 o'clock to-night.

ONTARIO MEN HOLD FIRST BIG MEETING

Boxing Bouts Feature of the Evening

SMOKES AND EATS

Plans and Activities for Coming Year Discussed

Once more the Union Cafeteria was the scene of a student gathering in the form of the initial smoker of the Ontario Club. The two boxing bouts which were put on were the feature of the evening and furnished the crowd with all kinds of amusement. The music also was of an extremely peppy nature and each time the musicians stopped to rest their fingers, such a round of applause met their ears that they immediately returned to the business in hand.

In the absence of the president, Lux McCullough, W. W. Davis opened proceedings and the meeting at first took the form of a business meeting for the purpose of discussing the plans for the coming season. The forming of a hockey team was one point which met with universal interest and is thought that this will stimulate a great deal of interest in the club. Fraser Powell was elected to the captaincy of the team and he will do all in his power to make it a success. Another interesting feature which was brought before the meeting was the giving of a concert at some future date. This project was discussed at some length and it was finally decided to let it stand until their next meeting, when a definite report on the musical numbers that could be obtained would be given to the meeting.

Professor Leacock, who was to have addressed the club, was unable to be present, but Professor Carruthers, who is the honorary president of the Ontario Club, spoke to them with a few sentences short and to the point. The main topic of his address was the value of sectional clubs to the University and also to the individual. The good that can be derived from these gatherings are too numerous to mention, but the associations formed by these clubs are most noticed by the Freshmen and by the graduates. It may seem strange that these two should be rated together, but a Freshman comes into college and he has a great many traditions and customs to learn and these can best be learned through the medium of these gatherings. On the other hand, the graduate feels the results of friendships he has formed most strongly after he strikes out for himself.

The boxing bouts which were the feature of the evening were then staged; these had been looked forward to by one and all with a feeling of anticipation and interest. The first bout was a three-round bout between Marshall, a one hundred and fifty-eight pounder, and Adams, "The Fighting Parson." These two are out after In- (Continued on Page 3.)

MANDOLINISTS HAVE AMBITIOUS PLANS

Expect to Play at Local Theatre

In planning to play at a local theatre before Christmas, the Mandolin Club has undertaken a most ambitious project, which undoubtedly will be crowned with success, if the members of the club co-operate to the extent expected by the executive. As one of the Members of the Musical Association, the Club has played a most important part this year in making the musical organizations among the most popular with McGill students.

The entertainment provided by the clubs individually has been greatly improved, and the good-natured willingness of the members to respond to any request made of the Musical Association has popularised this college activity to an enormous extent.

There is much hard work required of the members of the Mandolin Club in preparation for this appearance in town, but the college is confident that just as great a success will be scored by the Club in this appearance as has been attained at the various University functions. The members are requested to be present without fail at the practice to-night, as further particulars of the engagement will be announced then.

As only about two weeks remain before this "McGill Night" every minute of practice is of great value.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF PHARMACISTS

Many Vital Questions Are Discussed

AT NEW MED.

The Attendance Is Very Gratifying

Before a large and enthusiastic gathering of the Pharmaceutical Society of McGill, held last night, in the New Medical Building, several points of extreme importance were brought forward.

D. G. Jassby, president of the society, who occupied the chair, explained that as Miss Musgrove, the secretary, was unable to be present till nine o'clock, the reading of the minutes would have to be dispensed with. Jassby also announced that due to unforeseen circumstances, Prof. Moore, who was to address the Society, was unable to be present. The president further urged that the members not only pay their fees punctually, but also make it their business to take an active interest in the affairs of the Society by attending its meetings regularly. It was further mentioned that the class picture had turned out well and that a copy could be obtained by paying one dollar to the class representative.

The next question brought for discussion was the proposal made at a previous meeting by N. Fish, namely, that the sum of one hundred dollars be set aside for a trust fund, for the purpose of forming a pharmaceutical library at McGill. Among the many suggestions that were made on this point were, that a campaign be made among the city druggists to raise the funds, that the students themselves be asked to contribute, that a book "show" be arranged, and that the money at present in the treasury be used. Finally, the motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

A committee composed of Miss Musgrove and Messrs. Fish and Held was formed to have charge of this matter.

The next point brought up was concerning the admission of women to the practice of pharmacy in the Province of Quebec. As the law now stands, there is nothing to prevent women studying pharmacy, but they are not allowed to practice. At the request of Prof. Moore the president brought up a motion that a resolution reading: "This society views (Continued on Page 3.)

INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE SATURDAY

Queen's and R.V.C. Compete in Convocation Hall

Unprecedented in the Annals of the R. V. C. is the event which is to take place next Saturday, December 2nd. This is the Intercollegiate Debate, between Queen's and R.V.C., when Queen's best debaters will compete with those of the R.V.C., in what will undoubtedly be a most interesting debate. The subject is, "Resolved that Oriental Immigration should be Excluded from Canada," and Queen's, in the persons of Miss D. Sutherland and Miss A. MacKercher, will uphold the affirmative, while Miss Joan Foster and Miss Lorna Kerr, of R.V.C. will take the negative.

The debate will be held in the Convocation Hall, and will begin at 8:15 p.m. sharp. The Delta Sigma Society extends a cordial invitation to all McGill students to attend, and invites them to remain for the dancing, which is to follow at the conclusion of the debate.

PAPERS TO BE READ BEFORE HISTORIANS

The second meeting of the Historical Club will be held on Wednesday evening in Strathcona Hall when papers will be read by two members of Arts '23. Campbell Wadsworth, who on two former occasions delivered instructive and interesting addresses, will speak on the civilization of the inhabitants of Mexico and Peru. This is a subject on which Wadsworth has spent considerable time.

The state of the early Iroquois will be the theme of Whitmore, whose paper last year was so much appreciated that the executive have again invited him to fill a place of honor on the programme. The manner of life of the Canadian Indian is a matter which always commands the attention of the Canadians, especially the habits of the most powerful and noted of all tribes, the Iroquois.

A BIT OF EGOTISM

Comment upon the man inclined to self-adulation is prevalent; mention of the man prone to self-censure is not so common. The one is usually derogatory; the other, when heard, is apt to be in approbation. The first class of individuals cited above force themselves and their failings unhesitatingly upon us, while the latter group is much less noticeable and the workings of their minds much less obvious, which probably accounts for the adverse criticism levelled at the first and the escape of the latter from notoriety.

And yet we wonder whether the evidently self-confident person ought to be regarded with depreciation; at college ought he not rather to be borne in sufrance, with the conviction that in due time he will find his proper place, where, finally, he will come to see things as they really are? On the other hand ought the self-critic to be looked upon with too great equanimity? We are frequently told of the merits of self-examination, of the benefits that are bound to result from a true appraisal of one's own worth, and of the obnoxious qualities of conceit. Stress is not laid, however, upon the dangers of undervaluation of one's own abilities, as is very likely to be a consequence of a too minute, and of a too persistent calculation of personal deficiencies.

Undoubtedly much more is to be expected of the man who has an exaggerated notion of his own capabilities, tiresome and bothersome though he may be, than of the individual who places no value upon himself and looks upon his fellows with admiration and envy, but makes no endeavour to suit himself to measure up to the standard which he has set, and is miserable because he fails to attain it by a series of effortless sequences. Those who develop the essentials of leadership are not always popular; their success is due to reliance in their own prowess. They might have been started on the way to achievement by a realization that they were falling short of the mark they had determined to reach. It was after they comprehended this that they became strenuously active. They attained their goal not by passive surrender, but by spirited opposition.

NOMINATIONS AND "STUMPING"

Today is the last date upon which nominations will be received for the positions of Faculty Representatives on the Students' Council. The interest manifested about the Campus thus far has been more casual than apparent, except in the instances of those actually concerned with forwarding the nomination of some man from their faculty. In a few short days the undergraduates will be called upon to choose from the list of nominees those who are to sit upon their executive body. In order to ensure the selection of suitable men, and the success of those best able to fill the offices, it is essential that steps be taken to sustain genuine interest over the forthcoming election. Publicity in the "Daily" will not alone serve this purpose; a more definite and radical move must be made. The part played by "stumping" oratory in creating interest was effectively demonstrated a few weeks ago, just previous to the first meeting of the Mock Parliament, when one of the parties canvassed the various buildings in this manner. That impromptu harangue would do as much for the approaching faculty elections, is a statement that will not be disproved by emulation. In addition it would afford the students an opportunity of estimating the worth of the candidates that could not be given otherwise. "Every candidate a 'stump' speaker," let us see who they are, and what they stand for.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Another speaker of note is to address the McGill student body. Through the medium of the Canadian Club the University has been fortunate in arranging for the appearance of Dr. John R. Mott, a man of distinction both here and abroad, a man to whom the late President Roosevelt of the United States referred as "one of the five greatest living statesmen," finally a man of authority in the East as well as one of authority on the East. Dr. John R. Mott, it is commonly known, was offered the Presidency of the Chinese Republic. He will be present at the Royal Victoria College this afternoon at five o'clock. McGill will be there, too.

Elsewhere in this issue appear the budgetary statements of a few of the college organizations. This is an innovation at McGill, and is the result of a suggestion brought forward at the last gathering of the Students' Society. By this means the undergraduate body will be in a position to form an idea of the financial standing of the different university clubs and to discuss with clarity the problems that will be mentioned at the next meeting of the Students' Society. It marks an endeavour to inform, as well as to interest the students in their Alma Mater, and as such is a distinct step forward.

The Editor,
McGill Daily:

Dear Sir,—Mr. Lane very ably exposes "the wizard of Orange" in his letters to the Daily.

It is, I think, a moot question whether or not Science students are well informed on every day topics, or that more than a small percent have initiative.

A much more easily proven hypothesis is: do they go to college and graduate with the idea of starting as a "cog" and of working to become the "main drive?" Most students, I think, have a soft job in mind, or at least a comfortable one and a clean one.

Much valuable information, as to whether or not McGill men "are afraid to soil their hands" as Mr. Edison states, can easily be collected by a census of the three upper years in the Faculty of

ENTERTAINMENT FOR ANGLICANS

"At Home" Tomorrow Afternoon at Bishop's Court

Owing to the incomplete registration records which Mrs. Farthing has received from the registrar, some of the Anglican students have not received an invitation to the "At Home" to be given to-morrow afternoon from 4 to 6 p.m. at Bishop's Court. All students of the Anglican Church are cordially invited to attend this At Home, whether they have received their invitations or not.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Christ Church Cathedral have been doing their utmost to make this affair very successful. Through this event, all Anglican students from town and from out-of-town will be given an excellent chance to meet one another.

Bishop's Court is at 453 Union Ave.

Science.
Through the Daily or some other medium, a short questionnaire might be circulated to discover why Canadians as represented by McGill students go to university, and what work they do during the summer.

Are they afraid to soil their hands?

BASKETBALL SEMI-FINALS LAST NIGHT

Arts '25 and Med. '25 Were Winners

CLOSELY CONTESTED

Victors to Meet in Final
Wednesday Night

The semi-finals in the class basketball league played last night resulted in the elimination of Commerce '25, who were defeated by Arts '25 by the close score of 20-17, and also of Medicine '24, who lost to Med. '25 by a score of 21-13.

Both games were replete with spectacular plays, and afforded the rooters of the respective teams ample opportunities to applaud their favorites.

The first game was perhaps a better exhibition of basketball, the teams being fairly evenly matched. Arts '25, however, excelled in combination, and were more effective at close range than their opponents, who tossed away many chances to score on easy shots.

Commerce '25 were the first to tally, Davis making a penalty shot. Glickman added two more points by a field goal, making the score 3-0. Miller and Bronson then combined, and the latter netted two for Arts '25. The same player added two more immediately after the face-off.

The play was equally divided between the two teams for the remainder of the period, and the score at half-time was 10-9 in favor of Arts '25.

On resuming play, Rapp, who had been unable to get going in the first half, came to life, and scored a field goal. He incidentally scored 6 of the 10 points secured by his team in the last period. On a pass from Rapp, Miller scored the prettiest shot of the game from the centre of the floor.

Davis, who starred for the losers, scored two field goals in quick succession, bringing his team almost on equal terms with Arts '25.

At this stage of the game, the play, which had hitherto been exceptionally clean and devoid of penalties, became rather strenuous; and free shots came thick and fast. Comm. '25 tried desperately to catch up, but without success.

For the winners, Bronson and Miller were outstanding. The former was all over the floor, and gave an all round sterling exhibition. Miller, who weighs only 115 pounds, was knocked about considerably, but played well throughout, unselfishly passing the ball to a teammate in a better position to score than himself.

Davis and Cummings were the pick of Comm. '25, and against a weaker defence would have been very dangerous. Davis is an exceptionally clean player. Cummings' performance suffered by comparison with Bronson, who played against him, but it was nevertheless an excellent one. He is a tricky player, and fed the forwards to perfection.

Although the score does not indicate it, the second game, between Med. '24 and Med. '25, was even more closely fought than the first one. Both teams were weak in shooting, and missed many fine opportunities to score.

As in the first game, the losers were the first to tally. Caldwell netting a pretty goal, on a pass from Rankin, five seconds after the commencement of the game. Kennedy then made a free shot, but Rankin came right back with a field goal scored from a difficult angle. Altner and Kennedy then brought Med. '25 on even terms, the former scoring a field goal on an individual play, and the latter netting a free shot. Rankin and Roberts each added a field goal, making the score read 8-4 in favor of Med. '24. There was no more scoring during the remainder of the period.

Play in the first half had been confined for the most part to individual effort, but in the last half Med. '25 passed the ball around more, and as a result drew away from their opponents. The score was tied after a minute's play, Kennedy making 2 free shots, and Altner a field goal. Med. '24, however, regained the lead when McIntosh made a free shot. The joy of their rooters was short-lived, for Dempsey scored a pretty field goal on a pass from Wright, and Med. '25 in the lead for the first time. Whyte, Dempsey and Findley then scored within a minute. Kennedy and Dempsey later added four more between them, practically assuring the game for Med. '25. Med. '25, however, did not stop trying, Roberts making two free shots, and Rankin netting a field goal just before the final whistle blew.

Altner and Dempsey were the choice of the winners, while Roberts and Rankin were the best of the losers.

The final, Wednesday night, should result in a closely-fought game. There is very little to choose between the two finalists, the speed and teamwork of Arts '25 should, if anything, give them the advantage. This will, however, be offset in a measure by the advantage in weight which Med. '25 have.

WATER POLOISTS HOLD PRACTICE

Swimmers and Divers Also Meet With Attention

The water poloists held a final practice on Saturday at the Y.M.C.A. bath in preparation for the Intermediate game with M.A.A.A. Reds to-night. The latter have already defeated the McGill squad in a home game, but since then the college second team has developed from a fair aggregation of players into one of the most finished teams in the league. Indeed, their passing, and combination work in some of the practices lately forced the senior team to do their best to keep ahead. Moore and Vickerson especially have been showing up well in the recent workouts, and together with Murphy, will probably play on the forward line this evening. Forsyth and Phipps put up a stonewall defence, and Jardine in goals, can be counted on to stop most of the opposing teams' shots. All these men have been doing some great work of late, and if their showing on Saturday is an indication, have a good chance of winning the game in their own bath.

Although the Seniors have secured their hold on the City League Championship, there has been no let up in their practices, and most of the players were out on Saturday. It is rumored that Toronto has a very strong team this year, although they lack such outstanding stars as George Vernot and Jim Ross, and will be able to give the McGill men a hard tussle if they plan to retain the Intercollegiate championship. It will be remembered that the home team won the title last season, in spite of the absence of their star player, George Vernot, so that this year, with Vernot playing at centre, they have more than a good chance to take the honors.

The speed swimmers spent about a half hour practicing the turns at the end of the bath, Coach Vernot giving the men some invaluable advice as to the different methods of doing the trick properly. The new men particularly benefited by this, for though some of them are fast rounders into form and developing more speed at every practice, they lack the knowledge of the fine points of the game that marks the work of the more experienced men. Among the new men, Vickerson and Fry look especially promising for the 50 yard swim, and will very likely be depended on for this event in the meet, leaving George Vernot and Ross free to attend to the longer distances. The former was unavoidably absent from the practice on Saturday, but Ross was out and showed some sensational bursts of speed in the 100 yards.

The divers were also looked after, and Vickerson and Laidley both tried out the spring board, while the coach looked on and pointed out to the men where their work could be improved on. Two relay teams were then picked, and in the race that followed the swimmers showed the best they could do in the speed line, but neither could gain much of an advantage, and the race ending practically in a dead heat.

As illness will keep one or two of the members of the Intermediate teams out of the tank, the following substitutes are requested to be on hand: Bethel, Wade and Murphy.

Those in attendance at Saturday's boxing eliminations, cannot possibly claim that their appetites for fistic action were not satisfied to the highest degree.

That the boxing club possesses talent of a high standard, was amply shown.

The next faculty boxing eliminations are scheduled at Molson's Hall for Friday night at eight o'clock.

The need for heavyweights in boxing, has been stressed in these columns before.

A slugger who possesses the least ambition and is willing to train hard, can make the intercollegiate squad.

That is no mean offer to make. Any husky weighing around one hundred and seventy-five pounds, or over, with the above qualifications, ought to jump at this.

The mat-men were out in all their glory, at yesterday's practice.

It was announced that the faculty wrestling competitions will take place on Monday and Thursday of next week.

The closest wrestling competition is assured this year, because practically every grappler will compete in the eliminations.

It is understood that intercollegiate wrestlers of previous years, are barred from these competitions.

In preparation for the above, it is assured that the mats will be available for wrestling, every Saturday afternoon.

The B. W., & F. smoker, which is an outstanding athletic event of the season, is scheduled to take place early in December.

Boxing practice at Molson's Hall at 5:15 p.m.

WEIR TROPHY CAPTURED BY M.A.A.A. GIRLS

Phyllis Powell, M.S.P.E. '23,
Wins Diving Crown

RECORDS BROKEN

Doris Bain Wins Points for Physical Ed. Team

The finals of the Weir Trophy swimming contests were held at the M.A.A.A. tank last night. The Winged Wheel representatives carried off the trophy with 71 points to their credit. The other competitors—the McGill School of Physical Education, the Young Women's Christian Association and the Westmount High School—all showed that Montreal lady swimmers are capable of considerable skill in aquatic events.

The McGill representatives—the M.S.P.E.—put up a good fight despite the loss of two of their regular team Miss Doris Bain gained second place in the 20 yards race, finishing in splendid style and also won points in two other events. Miss Florence Gardner also made a second place, coming in close behind the winner in the 40-yard breast.

The diving was easily the most popular as well as the most spectacular event of the meet. Miss Phyllis Powell, M.S.P.E. '23, made three excellent dives, winning the event for her team.

Miss Barwick of the M.A.A.A. won the 40-yard side and incidentally lowered the previous record by two seconds.

The gallery was filled to capacity, each team's supporters cheering lustily for their own representatives. Exciting races with close finishes and later the diving called forth continuous applause.

The final standing of the four competing teams was: M.A.A.A., 72 pts.; W.H.S., 43 pts.; M.S.P.E., 37 pts.; Y.W.C.A., 28 pts.

The M.S.P.E. line-up was as follows: D. Bain, F. Gardner, P. Powell, F. Flanagan, M. Pulkinghorn, L. Elbottson.

Considerable criticism of the regulations at present governing the competition was heard among judges and spectators. The general opinion was that a meeting should be called at which more definite rules might be laid down. Mr. J. E. Simard, secretary of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, made some excellent suggestions on the subject. The matter will probably be fully discussed in the near future.

A teachers' meeting was in progress and it was decided that the more difficult subjects should come in the morning, and those that required less application later in the day. History was last on the list, and Miss Wheeler, the young teacher, protested.

"But it certainly is easier than science or mathematics," the principal insisted.

"As I teach it," replied the young teacher, "no subject could be more difficult and confusing."

SENIORS WORKED HARD LAST NIGHT

Forward Line Showed Good Form

Two teams of basketball players met in the High School Gym last night at the practice hour, and a fast brand of playing was displayed. The Seniors had a slight advantage on the second team, as they used some of the old plays that brought them through to victory last year. James and Scharfe, of the intermediates, made the defence of the veterans work overtime when they started some deadly shooting in the early periods of the game. Hilton, of last year's Intermediate "A" team, and Crain, hit their stride after a short period, and they smothered the opposing forwards. Manson is on the floor again showing that his ability is not at all impaired by the summer's rest. Little and Mendelsohn, on the forward line, are working well, the latter shooting remarkably well for this stage of the season. The Intermediate team, although not having any set team work, as yet, is making the Senior delegation play first rate basketball to score. They should, at the conclusion of the year, stand well at the top of the league in which they are to play. The competition they run up against every day is much stiffer than that which they will be called upon to tackle in the season's games.

The completion of the schedule shows a well balanced year, and there is still a chance that the team will, during the year, visit Ottawa and play the Y.M.C.A. team there, although no definite date has been set.

R.V.C. BASKETBALL TEAMS IN ACTION

Seniors and Sophomores Are Victors of the Day

The first games of the inter-class basketball series took place Saturday afternoon at Molson Hall. The first match between the Seniors and Juniors was won by the Seniors. Their superior combination and accurate shooting easily overpowered the Juniors, who played gamely up to the last second.

Miss Marshall's brilliant shots, and the clever passing of the two centres, Miss Pick and Miss Roy, were the outstanding features. Miss Spier played her usual steady game.

For the Juniors, Miss Robertson and Miss Basken starred, while Miss Russell made several neat shots. Final score: 50-13.

Z. Slack E. Russell
H. Marshall P. Murray

The second game between Grad-Partials and the Second Freshie team showed very plainly that team combination and accurate throws are necessary acquisitions to both teams. Miss Spier starred for the Partials and netted the largest number of points.

Final score: 29-13.
Line-up:—

The third game between the Freshies and Sophomores, was the most exciting and closely contested of the three.

The Freshies showed lack of practice, but there was good material shown for future college teams. Score at half time was 9-8 for Freshies.

However, in the second half the Sophs. picked up, and by hard playing won the match by 22-16.

WHEN HE SMILED.

A young man who had just become engaged had an amazingly large mouth which, when he smiled, seemed to spread out over his whole face. At the urging of his newly betrothed sweetheart he went to speak to her father at once.

"I-I have come, Mr. Barrett," he said, beginning to smile at once with the utmost geniality in order to cover up his embarrassment, "to ask for your daughter's hand. I-I—"

"Excuse me," the father mildly interrupted, "but will you kindly close your mouth for a moment until I can see who you are?"

TRACK CLUB MEETS TONIGHT IN UNION

Hammer-Throwing May Be Discarded

To-night there will be an important meeting of the Track Club in the Union. The main item to be considered is the alteration of the programme of the inter-faculty track meet for next year. The meeting of the track Union at the time of the intercollegiate meet brought up the question of discarding the hammer-throwing event, and replacing it with the javelin. This item should cause some discussion owing to the interest shown in the heavy event last fall. The introduction of the low hurdles and the walking race will also be considered. These two events are both popular in Toronto, but the latter is not used in the meets in Quebec. It is probable that there will be tried next year if the meeting considers it worth while.

The picture of the track team will be at the meeting, and any men who wish to order these may do so. The meeting will be held in the Music Room of the Union at five.

PRESBYTERIANS AT HARMONY AGAIN

House Committee has Settled
Trouble Among Theologs

In an interview given to the "Daily" late last evening, the president of the Students' Council at the Presbyterian Theological College, stated that as far as the students are concerned, their recent trouble with the House Committee is now a closed book. At a meeting held last Thursday between the House Committee and representatives of the students, an amicable settlement was arrived at and all is now serene.

This statement, coming as it does from an official source, dispels all misconceptions created in the minds of many by recent items published in local papers.

COLLEGE MAKES CONTRIBUTIONS

Many Donations to Federated
Charities of Montreal

The response by the University to the appeal of the Federated Charities Organization has been truly gratifying, and should be a source of pride to all connected either directly or indirectly with McGill.

The Faculty and employees have together contributed $4,000. Of the classes so far heard from, Science '23 have contributed most, a total of $124 having been collected. In this class, donations ranged anywhere from 50 cents to $10.

The Law Undergraduates' Society have passed a resolution that each man contribute the sum of 50 cents.

The attention of the students is drawn to the fact that although the campaign officially ended yesterday at 1 o'clock, contributions can nevertheless be made until the end of the week. These will be received by E. C. Amaron, at Strathcona Hall.

ONTARIO MEN HOLD FIRST B.G. MEETING

tercollegiate honours and judging from their exhibition last night they will make some of the men stand on their toes.

The second bout was perhaps watched with more interest as the men were of equal weights. In this Championship Baird fought a "no decision" four-round battle and displayed their wares to advantage. The blows were fast and furious and even the crowd was astir with the number of the blows and the punch behind them. "Windy" Brewer refereed the bouts in his usual breezy manner and he and his boxers deserve a hearty vote of thanks for the amusement they furnished last evening.

Immediately following the bouts — refreshments — and this meeting with general approval a wild rush was made for eats. These latter were all that could be desired and disappeared with great deal of rapidity.

with favour the admission of women to the practice of pharmacy" be passed, and a copy of it be forwarded to Mr. Pelan, secretary of the Provincial Pharmaceutical Society.

Tabb objected that this resolution would serve no purpose, and would only serve to make the Provincial Society antagonistic to the College one. The motion was, however, carried.

The next point brought up was concerning the Bachelor of Pharmacy degree. For the benefit of those now to be at the University of Montreal those who obtain over 60 per cent. in certain examinations are exempted by the authorities from their "minor" examinations. McGill men, continued the speaker, feel that they too, are entitled to the same privilege. To this end a letter was sent last year to Corporation, dealing at length with the matter, but nothing had been heard of it since.

It was proposed that another letter, as read by Mr. Fish, be sent to Corporation through Professor Moore. Tabb moved vote of thanks to N. Fish for his excellent letter.

Held brought up the point of the moving of the Pharmacy notices board to an obscure part of the building, suggesting that something be done to have it returned to its former place. It was explained by the president that he was looking after this matter. The business part of the meeting was then declared closed.

An informal discussion among the students and the serving of spades and refreshments brought the evening to an end.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Last Thursday night the Ohio State students painted the town red with the biggest torchlight parade the Buckeye School has ever seen. Well over five thousand people gathered in the "gym" to see the "lightfest" which was held for the benefit of the Ohio State Football Club, which departed for Urbana and the Illinois game.

"A striking example," remarked the chairman as he brought his gavel down smartly upon its block.

"That don't cut no ice," cried the gardener, as he ran his lawnmower over the miles-Ellay.

DAILY FILES

NOVEMBER 28, 1911—

Twenty thousand spectators on Saturday claimed Toronto Varsity winners for the third consecutive time of the football championship of Canada. Playing wonderful football the Collegians, on a snowy gridiron, piled up a score of 14 to 7 on the Argonauts. Jack Maynard and Campbell of Varsity were the individual stars of the game.

NOVEMBER 28, 1912—

At a meeting of the Arts Undergraduate Society, the question of the annual dinner came up. Wet or dry was again the question and as in former years the dries won. After a number of motions and amendments and sharp onslaught by the "wets" the following motion was passed: "That the dinner be a dry one and that all the arrangements be left in the hands of a committee."

NOVEMBER 28, 1913—

There will be no dance at Macdonald College tonight due to a sudden outbreak of scarlet fever in the building in which the social function was to be held. Quarantine has been resumed. Dr. Adams and Prof. Ludlow were the prominent speakers at the second annual meeting of the American Club of McGill last night. A letter of regret was received from "Shag," who is away attending the Army-Navy football game in Philadelphia.

NOVEMBER 28, 1914—

Jack Lewis, one of the most popular men who ever donned a McGill football uniform and whose performance at outside wing for the Red and White three seasons ago earned for him the title of one of the best in Intercollegiate football, leaves for the front with the Second Contingent. Last night he was married to Miss Muriel Grace Robertson of Montreal. The ceremony took place quietly at St. Andrew's Church, Westmount. Allan C. T. Lewis, of Ottawa, acted as his brother's best man.

All arrangements made with the Yale Hockey Club in connection with the games which it had been proposed to play with McGill towards the middle of December have been cancelled owing to financial difficulties. It is expected that the games with Harvard in Boston early in February will go through.

NOVEMBER 28, 1916—

Sir William Peterson, Principal of the University, has received word that 2nd Lieut. Geoffrey Thompson, of the class of Science '14, was killed in action on the Somme front on September 3, through the explosion of a German shell.

Another McGill man has been rewarded with companionship in the Distinguished Service Order for gallantry displayed by him in the recent operations in which the Canadians have taken part on the Somme. He is Major Lawrence V. M. Cosgrave, past student with the class of Science '14.

NOVEMBER 28, 1917—

Word was received last night that Lieut. Lorne C. Montgomery, Med. '17, serving at the front with a Montreal Highland Unit of the Third Canadian Division, has died of wounds. Lieut. Montgomery had only recently returned to the front after a furlough in England, where he met several McGill men. Lieut. Montgomery was known at the University not only as an excellent all-round athlete, but as a brilliant student. He was a member of the Senior football, hockey and basketball teams and carried off many scholastic honors. (Note: Despite the above account which was printed in a heavy black border in the "Daily," Dr. L. C. Montgomery insists that he is very much alive. The members of the 1919 Varsity football team, which fell before the powerful attack of the McGill championship team that year, share "Monty's" opinion. He was live enough to captain the Red and White team to victory and is at present at the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Md.)

All arrangements have been completed for the Medical dance, which is to take place tonight in the Assembly Hall of the New Medical building. Mr. Eckstein and his seven-piece orchestra, consisting mostly of returned men, have pledged themselves to make the musical part of the dance an enormous success.

NOVEMBER 28, 1918—

Students' Council reports surplus of $662.31 for year ending June 30, 1918, as compared with $1,429.24 for the previous year. In this connection we would point out that the increased loss on athletic activities was chiefly due to expenditure on the construction of new courts for the Tennis Club and also on account of the purchase of new equipment for the Hockey Club caused through the fire at the Arena.

NOVEMBER 28, 1921—

University of Montreal will be entered in the Intercollegiate Hockey Series this winter if the sentiment at the meeting of the executive of the Hockey Union held here is any indication. McGill strongly urged that the new University should be allowed to compete in the series. The University of Montreal has been noted for the number of good hockey players who have been attending lectures there but have been forced to play on outside teams as there was no aggregation representative of their college. The National team of Montreal had seven-ral players from the French college on its line-up last season, as did several other squads playing in the metropolis of Canada.

About 40 men turned out for the Senior Basketball practice at the Highlanders' Armory, among them several of last year's performers including "Bones" Little, Amaron and Brown. The services of a new coach have been obtained in the person of George Fon, a graduate of the "Y" College at Springfield, Massachusetts.

As a sign of an early commencement of the hockey season, it was found at a late hour last night that there were golden possibilities for the rink in the hollow near the Physics building. The rink was well flooded last night and the man in charge gave his opinion that, in spite of the snow there would be an expanse of good ice fit to skate on by morning.

The Players' Club of McGill expects to be very much in the glare of the spotlight of student attention at an early date. It was decided that every effort should be made to put a theatrical performance on the boards before Christmas.

CAUSE FOR EXCITEMENT

A pawnbroker's shop was on fire and a woman spectator was greatly excited. Every few minutes she would urge the firemen to greater efforts, until presently a bystander said: "What's the matter, missus? There's no one in there. What's all the fuss about?" "Fuss? There ain't no fuss at present," replied the woman, "but there will be if they don't get the fire out soon. My old man's fall suit is in hock there and he don't know it."

AMERICAN CLUB WILL HOLD DINNER NOV. 30

The American Club is to hold its annual Thanksgiving Dinner, Thursday, November 30, at the Queen's Hotel. A splendid menu, together with the presence of well-known speakers, augurs well for a most enjoyable evening.

The turkey, with cranberry sauce, is to have its customary place. The honorary president, F. E. Loyd, Dean Laing, Dr. Oertel and other members of the faculty have consented to be guests. The presence of Jimmy Rice, the humorist, will ensure a merry party.

Tickets may be obtained from the following: Knowlton, Med. '23; Lewis, Med. '23; Snow, Arts '26; White, Arts '26; Hamilton, Science '25; Hooper, Sci. '25; Koff, Med. '28; Tinkess, Med. '25.
